5. G.O.Ms.No.4 Ind. & Com (FP) Dept., dt. 20/01/2010.

ORDER:

In the G.O. 1st read above, orders were issued on Food Processing Policy of Andhra Pradesh State and extending various incentives and concessions to the Food Processing Industries in the State. In the GO second read above operational guidelines were also issued for implementation of the Food Processing Policy in the State.

2. In the G.O. 3rd read above, orders were issued evolving a fresh Food Processing Policy of Andhra Pradesh State; by superseding the orders issued in the G.O. first read above. In the G.O. 3rd read above Government of Andhra Pradesh have also extended certain incentives / concessions to these Food Processing Industries.

3. In the G.O. 4th read above, comprehensive orders were issued incorporating all the modifications issued to the Industrial Investment Promotion Policy (IIPP).

4. In the G.O. 5th read above, orders were issued on Value chain Development in Food Processing Industries. The incentives shall be extended / given to all the eligible entrepreneurs who are going to set up New Industries/ all the individual units in Food Processing Sector as per IIPP of Government of Andhra Pradesh issued from time to time.

5. The Objectives of the Food Processing Industry in Andhra Pradesh are to:

- a) Increase farm incomes through increasing the holding capacity (logistic support and produce marketing loans), and competitive & transparent marketing system.
- b) Increase value of commodities through local value addition viz., grading & standardization, primary processing.
- c) Promote rural entrepreneurship and employment by accelerating food and agri business development in rural and semi-urban areas;

(Contd...2)

- d) Promote low capital but labour intensive food & agri-business enterprises in rural areas.
- e) Increase the food industry share in export earnings and employment;
- f) Promote linkages among various stakeholders of the value chain in food processing sector.
- g) Improve quality and productivity of primary producers etc.

From the above it is clear that the Food Processing is an area connected to different Departments of the State Government. Hence, there is need to have coordination among all the Departments for effective implementation of Food Processing policy / Schemes etc. in Andhra Pradesh and to take required steps in this regard as the circumstances warrant, for development of Food Processing Industry in Andhra Pradesh. Therefore, it is felt desirable to have a Coordination Committee with officers in different departments connected to Food Processing Industries / Schemes etc., so that a critical review will be undertaken periodically and further steps can be taken as per the suggestions made by the Coordination Committee so that there will be coordination in the activities of the departments in obtaining clearances, in achieving systematic implementation and ensuring progress in establishing Food processing Industry in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

6. Accordingly, Government after careful consideration of the matter, hereby constitute a Coordination Committee with the following officers for effective implementation of Food Processing Policy/Schemes etc. in the State and to monitor the progress and suggest required steps in this regard:
